

Beyond the Shadow Realm

To pry beneath the surface of illusion
Is to discover the true nature of things,
Each subtle whisper of the voice within Conveying glimpses of a realm which Yearns to be explored: clarity of the

Awakened eye, serving as a portal to Foreign worlds; focused awareness
Giving rise to works of unimagined
Potential: refinement of mental Imagery, revealing insights of

A transformative nature: each
Experience sowing seeds of pure
Potential within the mind's fertile
Soil: that which springs from the Focused effort of imagination

Expressing the mind's vibrant hues;
In hope of inspiring like-minded souls
To awaken from the sleep-like trance

Of a world lost deep within the fog,
Like a ship that has lost its rudder.
